

I (We) , _____, have created an original piece of work titled, _____, (the "Student Paper") as part of my (our) studies at Williams College (course: _____). As the author(s) of the Student Paper and the owner(s) of the various copyrights inherent in the Student Paper, I (we) authorize the Center of Environmental Studies at Williams College ("CES") to use the "Student Paper" as described below:

_____ I (We) grant CES the right, during the Term defined below, to reproduce, distribute, display, perform publicly, and create derivative works based on the Student Paper solely for the following purposes (check all that apply):

_____ To allow CES to reproduce, distribute, publish, display, and otherwise make the Student Paper available on internet websites affiliated with Williams College.

_____ To allow CES to reproduce and distribute copies of the Student Paper for academic and non-commercial purposes.

_____ To allow CES to use the Student Paper for any and all academic and non-commercial purposes.

_____ To allow CES to _____

_____ This grant of rights in the Student Paper to CES is valid and persists for the following Term:

_____ This grant of rights is perpetual.

_____ This grant of rights shall terminate _____.

_____ I (We) wish to retain the full scope of our exclusive rights in the Student Paper. Accordingly, we do not authorize CES to make any use the Student Paper in any manner that infringes these exclusive rights under copyright law in the Student Paper.

Signed: _____

_____ Date: _____