

Interview Worksheet

1. List the major areas of responsibility in being a physician:

2. List your past experiences and/or accomplishments that relate to these responsibilities:

3. Prepare to present yourself effectively:
List the major points you wish to make. List examples you will use to support each point.

4. List the questions you would like to ask the interviewer. In an actual interview you may not have an opportunity to ask all of them so list them in order of importance to you.
